Further, where possible, the application shall include a list of all events for which the applicant served as matchmaker dating back either two years or five events.

6.10: Applicants, Licensees and Officials Must Submit Material to Commission as Directed

Any ring official, any person licensed by the Commission, and any applicant for a license must submit to the Commission any forms, records and statements at the times and manner as directed by the Commission. Failure to do so may result in denial or revocation of the applicable license. The Commission may also require the applicant to pass a written examination.

6.11: Grounds for Denial of Application for License

The Commission may deny an application for licensure or renewal of a license if:

- (1) it finds that the applicant has performed any act which would, if performed by a licensee, subject the licensee to discipline pursuant to 523 CMR 20.00 or 21.00;
- (2) pursuant to M.G.L. c.147, §35, the Commission is not satisfied that the applicant possesses the ability to safely and competently compete or execute the duties of the position for which they have applied, including a lack of requisite skill for unarmed combatants;

- (3) it is determined that false information was provided on the application;
- (4) the applicant fails to disclose information known to them relative to the medical condition of an unarmed combatant, including themselves, as required by 523 CMR 6.02;
- (5) (for an unarmed combatant) the applicant has suffered cerebral hemorrhage and has not been cleared by a medical practitioner after subsequent testing satisfactory to the Commission.

6.12: Application for New License or Petition for Reinstatement of License after Denial, Revocation or Suspension

- (1) Any applicant who has been denied a license by the Commission may not file a similar application until one year after denial by the Commission, unless the Commission specifies otherwise at the time of denial.
- (2) A person who has had their license revoked may not petition for reinstatement or apply for a new license until one year after the revocation. If the petitioner files a petition for reinstatement after the one year period required pursuant to 523 CMR 6.14(2), and the Commission denies the request, the petitioner may not petition again for reinstatement until one year after the denial unless the Commission specifies otherwise at the time of revocation.
- (3) A person who has had their license suspended for a period of one year or less may not file a petition for reinstatement or an application for a new license until the period of the suspension has expired unless the Commission specifies otherwise at the time of suspension.
- (4) The Commission may deny a petition or application that is not filed in accordance with 523 CMR 6.00 without a hearing.

6.13: Effect of Expiration of License on Jurisdiction of Commission

The expiration of a license does not deprive the Commission of jurisdiction to:

- (1) Proceed with an investigation of the licensee;
- (2) Proceed with an action or disciplinary proceeding against the licensee;
- (3) Render a decision to suspend or revoke the license; or
- (4) Otherwise discipline the licensee.
